

Healthcare Settings Still Require Masking

Starting 3/12/22, most persons can go unmasked, however, all who enter healthcare settings, to include this office, must still remain masked.

Social distancing and masking are still required of all healthcare settings in Washington state, which includes the practices of all massage therapists and massage clinics.

If you have a mask exemption for a medical reason, please let us know.

Thank you for your cooperation!

Advocate for massage therapy
as a recognized & respected healthcare profession.

— WASHINGTON STATE — WSMTA
MASSAGE THERAPY ASSOCIATION

www.mywsmta.org

info@mywmsta.org